

Tuesday, January 6, 2009 - The Wayne County Industrial Development Agency, Reliant Community Credit Union and the Wayne County Business Council have partnered with the Small Business Administration and SCORE, Counselors to America's Small Business, to establish a County-wide network of business mentors providing technical assistance to businesses by means of workshops as well as one-on-one counseling. We are interested in adding to our team of counselors and hope you can help.

Many companies strongly encourage employee involvement in professional and community-related activities as a way of giving back, to improving the quality of life and economic vitality in their communities. If you or your employees are looking for such a volunteer opportunity please join us for an informational meeting at 8:30AM on Tuesday, January 13, 2009 at the Quality Inn in Newark. Please contact Warren Halladay (Wayne County Business Council at 585-259-9956 by January 8 so we can plan for your attendance.
