

JOINT TOWN BOARD/VILLAGE BOARD MEETING

PUBLIC HEARING
ANNEXATION OF ALLENDALE-COLUMBIA SCHOOL
PROPERTY

The Public Hearing scheduled to be held before the joint Town/Village Boards on Monday, March 5, 2001, at the Village Hall, 144 East Main Street, Palmyra, to consider the application of the owners of the Allendale-Columbia School property to have said property annexed into the Village of Palmyra, was called to order at 6:30 PM by Village Mayor Pete Wilson. Mayor Wilson will preside over this public hearing.

Town Board members present at this public hearing included:

Town Supervisor	-	David C. Lyon
Town Board Members	-	David Nussbaumer
	-	Lynne Green
	-	Michael Lambrix

Village Board members present at this public hearing included:

Village Mayor	-	Peter Wilson
Village Trustees	-	Bob Gunkler
	-	Dick DeVogelaere
	-	Curt Solomon
	-	Fred Celentano

(Attorney Art Williams representing both the Town & Village)

On behalf of the Town and Village Boards, mayor Wilson explained the public hearing was to hear any testimony concerning the petition by Allendale-Columbia School for the annexation into the Village of Palmyra of certain territory situate in the Town of Palmyra and the Village of Palmyra as described in the petition and legal notice. The legal notice was published in the Courier-Journal on February 7, 2001. The reading of the legal notice was waived.

Mayor Wilson asked if anyone wished to present any testimony, evidence or information concerning the petition. As there were no comments at all, motion was made by Mayor Wilson, seconded by Trustee Celentano to close the public hearing.

Vote: Town Board 4 ayes Village Board 5 ayes CARRIED

At this time the Town Board members excused themselves and the Village Board continued with their regular meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Beverly E. Hickman
Town Clerk
